

WILLIAMSON HAS ELUDED OFFICERS

Alleged Wife-Murderer and Bigamist Has Not Been Recaptured.

NO CLUE TO WHEREABOUTS

Country Covered With Descriptions and Hard Chase for Fugitive Is On.

JAMES A. WILLIAMSON.

Times-Dispatch Bureau, 109 North Sycamore Street, Petersburg, Va., July 3.

Nothing has yet been heard from James A. Williamson, who escaped from the temporary jail in this city at an early hour yesterday morning. He is probably out of the State by this, having had the advantage of a long start over organized effort to capture him. Accurate descriptions of the fugitive, with a good picture of him, have been sent to all important points, and the hope is entertained that these may lead to his arrest. The following is the description of Williamson as sent out by Chief Ragland.

"Junius A. Williamson, alias R., alias J. G., alias G. J., alias Jack Williamson, age twenty-six years; height, 5 feet 10 or 10 1/2 inches; black hair; brown eyes; mole on left side of nose near the end, which looks like a wart, smokes a pipe a great deal; is a railroad man, and a carpenter." A reward of $50 is offered for his arrest.

Williamson was under arrest for forgery, but a charge of bigamy, practically proved, was to be made against

END OF A RED NOSE

New Flesh-Colored Product That Heals and Hides Skin Imperfections.

A peculiar feature of posium, a new skin discovery, is that it is naturally flesh-colored and contains no grains, so that when used on the face for the complexion, or for pimples, red noses, or any other inflammation, blemishes or discolorations, its presence cannot be detected. It can thus be applied in the daytime, the natural color of the skin being immediately restored and the actual healing and curing process accomplished in a few days. It can be had of any pharmacist who sells pure drugs. Tragle's make a specialty of it. Fifty cents' worth will answer either for the troubles mentioned or in curing ordinary cases of eczema. Itching stops at once.

BRIDGE WALKING MUST BE STOPPED

All persons are warned against crossing the bridge of the Virginia Railway and Passenger Co. across the Appomattox River, except in cars of the company. One person has already been killed by being knocked off by a car, and but for the great care and watchfulness of the motormen, numbers of other persons would have been knocked off this bridge.

Persons walking across here are trespassing on private property, often delaying the running of the cars and interfering with the schedule, in addition to unnecessarily risking their lives.

Chief Ragland, as well as the county authorities of Chesterfield have been asked to arrest any person caught on this bridge, and all persons caught will be vigorously prosecuted.—ADV.

him, and a still blacker cloud hovered over him; the suspicion that he poisoned his second wife in this city on June 5. It is believed he jumped one of many night freight trains leaving Petersburg.

Memorial to a Christian Woman. The congregation of the First Baptist Church is erecting a handsome memorial in memory of Mrs. T. H. Woody, an honored Christian woman, for many years a member of that church, and who at her death bequeathed a handsome sum to the church.

The memorial is a brick building connected with the church, 25 by 60 feet in size, and two stories in height. The upper floors will be used as class rooms and the lower for the primary department of the Sunday school, and both for meetings for church purposes. The front of the new building will be an exact replication of the handsome front of the church. The memorial will cost $8,000 or more.

Tennessee Window in Blandford Church. Gradually the Southern States are responding to the call of the Ladies' Memorial Association of this city to erect memorial windows in historic old Blandford Church to the memory of their dead soldiers buried in the cemetery here. The remains of some 30,000 Confederate soldiers, representing every Southern State, rest in Blandford Cemetery, and the old church, restored to its original design, has been turned into a beautiful memorial chapel by the ladies' association. Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Louisiana and Missouri have erected memorial windows to their dead, and now comes word from the Daughters of the Confederacy of Tennessee that the memorial window for that State will soon be ordered. All of these windows are made by Tiffany, of New York, and are of the same design, but bearing different inscriptions. Each window costs $400, and each bears the coat of arms of the State furnishing it, with the life-size figure of one of the apostles.

In response to a suggestion, the Ladies' Memorial Association of the State decided to place a "contribution box" in the church to receive donations from visitors who desire to help the ladies in their patriotic work.

Arrest of an Alleged Fugitive. On complaint from Bedford City, Detective Heelan last night arrested at the Stratford Hotel a young white man named Dr. George Jones, a veterinary surgeon. He was registered at the hotel as W. A. Jones, from Lexington, Ky. Dr. Jones came here several days ago from Bedford City, where, it is alleged, he had been practicing his profession for some time. The charges against the young man, it is said, involve money transactions. He will be held in jail here to await orders from Bedford City.

Robert V. Carter, a court reporter in the Post-Telegraph office in this city, was taken quite sick yesterday at his home on Halifax Street, and though better to-day, is still confined to his bed.

Justice James B. Tallafiero, assistant to the Police Justice, is at his home to-day sick.

The Election of an Inspector.

The validity of the election of Inspector of Milk and Food Supplies Thursday evening at the joint meeting of the Board of Aldermen and Common Council has been brought into question by the fact that the ordinance creating the office and fixing the date when it should go into effect (August 1) had not at the time been approved by the Mayor. Owing to the sickness of the clerk of the Councils, the ordinance was not presented to the Mayor until yesterday morning, when it was at once approved. Personal and Otherwise. The Summer School at the Virginia Normal and Industrial Institute closed yesterday. The attendance was given to be 160 teachers, who had been present the entire session. The total enrollment of teachers during the session was 229.

The Fire Department mascot, a favorite dog named "Blackie," was killed to-day by the engines last night, was so severely injured that he had to be killed. He was chloroformed.

A deed has been entered in the clerk's office by Hill Carter and others, special masters, etc., transferring to the Virginia Railway and Passenger Co. all of the property of the old Virginia Passenger and Power Company, much of which lies in Petersburg and Dinwiddie county.

Mrs. Imogen Kell, of Richmond, accompanied by her cousin, Mrs. Rita Lawrence, is visiting in the city.

Mrs. E. W. Butcher and family left this evening for Raleigh, N. C., to visit Mrs. Butcher's father, Dr. N. M. Culbreth.

DAY IS CELEBRATED WITH GREAT PAGEANT

Teachers at Summer School Take Unique Method of Observing the Fourth.

Various States Represented. CHARLOTTESVILLE, July 3.—The summer school at the University of Virginia celebrated Independence Day to-day by presenting a great historical pageant, composed of representatives of the various counties of the State of Virginia and other States.

In the pageant the various States and the counties of Virginia, which are represented in the summer school, formed a procession, the members of which represented historical characters and events. This procession was headed by persons impersonating Sir Walter Raleigh and Queen Elizabeth. The pageant was arranged for by group in chronological order so as to tell the stories of the landing at Cape Henry of John Smith and his followers, of the treaty with the Indians, etc.

The procession formed at Cabell hall and proceeded up East Lawn to the south steps of the rotunda, where they passed in review before a party impersonating four presidents—Washington, Jefferson, Madison and Monroe—with their wives and other such notables as Patrick Henry and Edgar Allan Poe.

The presentation of each group was announced by the heralds, and suitable addresses were paid by the representatives to the receiving president.

Professor Willoughby Reade, of the Episcopal High School, Alexandria, Va., read the Declaration of Independence.

The quaint costumes of the various representatives reminded one of a century or more and added much interest to the pageant.

After the pageant the faculty of the summer school gave a reception to the students of the school, and the quadrangle in the front of Cabell hall.

The attendance at the summer school is rapid and increasing. Just prior to the opening of the school, more than 1,000 have enrolled. Among the entertainments in store for the summer school are the reading by Professor Reade Thursday night, July 8, and the Cuban players will give three performances, July 16 and 17.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE IN MISSION MOVEMENT.

BLACK MOUNTAIN, N. C., July 3.—At the annual conference of the Young People's Missionary Movement at Montreat addresses were made by E. D. Harper and H. C. Myers, of New York. A large number of delegates had arrived, and much interest is being manifested. At the morning session five mission study classes were organized, an institute on missions in the Sunday schools was held, and an address was made by Dr. B. N. Potoat, president of Furman University, of Greenville, S. C., on the principles of the greatest career. To-night denominational meetings were held.

YOUNG MAN FOUND DEAD ON THE TRACKS

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] CAPE CHARLES, Va., July 3.—The dead body of a young man, apparently about nineteen years old, believed to be John Hawkins, of Portsmouth, was found along the tracks of the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk Railroad early this morning, just near Exmore Station. The body had probably lain there for some hours before being discovered. There was no mark of violence. Coroner Nicholson examined the body and a jury decided that the young man had died from causes unknown to the jury. The body was interred at the county cemetery.

DELEGATES NAMED BY HENRY COUNTY

Representatives Indorse Chairman Slomp and Pledge Support to Parsons.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] MARTINSVILLE, Va., July 3.—The Republicans of Henry county met in mass-meeting here this afternoon and elected the following delegates to the State convention at Newport News: John R. Brown, B. F. Stultz, L. B. Cheshire, John W. Simmons, Sam Morgan, H. B. Land, W. H. Carter, F. M. Priaman, Rufus Hurst, C. S. Turner, J. N. Jarratt, T. E. Elgin and C. C. Bassett.

The attendance was large and representative, every section of the county being represented. The convention was not in session over thirty minutes, and was very orderly. Resolutions were adopted indorsing the principles of the Republican party as laid down in the last national platform, the course of Chairman Slomp in Congress and pledging the support of the Republicans of Henry to Hon. John H. Parsons in his contest for the seat from this district. No one was indorsed for Governor.

Hon. Joel B. Fort, of Tennessee, spoke here to-day in the interest of the organization of the tobacco growers' association. Mr. Fort is an able and eloquent speaker and was attentively listened to. He was introduced by Professor Gus Dyer, of Nashville, Tenn., formerly of this county.

Judge E. W. Saunders also spoke briefly of his work in Congress in behalf of the tobacco raisers of this section. Meetings have been held at several other points in the county this week. The object of the movement is to form an association of tobacco growers similar to that in Kentucky and Tennessee.

Harmonious Meeting.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] WEST POINT, Va., July 3.—The Republicans of King William county held a harmonious meeting at the courthouse to-day and elected the following delegates to the State convention to be held at Newport News: Thomas B. Sneed, John S. DeFarges, W. T. Mookler, James Hargrave. Resolutions in behalf of President Taft's administration were adopted, and also one in support of State Chairman Slomp and National Committee Martin. A committee was appointed to confer with the county committee of Hanover county looking to placing a legislative candidate in the field.

New Road Makes Changes.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] LYNCHBURG, Va., July 3.—As the Virginia Railway, which comes under the name of the new road, is being rapidly made in the territory adjacent to the system, in order to conform to the new order of things. Recently many new point-offices have been established along the line, and now star routes and star route offices are being discontinued. While the new road is being established from the railway towns which are growing up along the line.

RECORD RUNNING WAS IMPOSSIBLE

High Wind Prevented Athletic Stars from Doing Their Best Work.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] BRIGHTON BEACH, N. Y., July 3.—A large crowd of athletic enthusiasts turned out to witness the first games of the Brighton Beach A. C. here this afternoon. Barring a westerly gale the weather conditions were perfect, but the high wind made record running almost impossible. The main event of the afternoon was the Brighton mile, in which were entered such stars as Emilio Langhi, of Italy; H. W. Wilson, of England; Harvey Cohn and Frank Riley of the Irish-American A. C., and Harry Giesing, the 1,000-yard champion of America.

The millers lined for their race at 4:45. Bromlow was on the pole, then Riley, then Gels, then Langhi, and Wilson on the outside. Riley jumped to the front at the gun crack, and led all the way until the last lap, where Joe Bromlow jumped out and beat Riley to the tape by five yards in 4 minutes 47 seconds. The foreigners were the never.

The other feature, the 300-yard run, scratch, was won by F. L. Ramsdell, the University of Pennsylvania sprinter, after a thrilling race with Jim McEnlee, New York A. C., and Rosenberger, the Irish-American sprinter. Ramsdell broke away first and led all the way. Rosenberger was second to the head of the stretch, where McEnlee uncorked a mighty sprint and pushed Rosenberger back to third place. Rosenberger's defeat was another great shock to the wise ones.

BRISTOL SITUATION SOMEWHAT PERPLEXING

"Wets" Are Making Quiet Campaign and "Drys" Are in Ignorance of Their Plans for Election.

BRISTOL, Va., July 3.—The situation here with reference to the local option election, which takes place next Thursday, July 8, is somewhat perplexing.

The temperance forces are making an open campaign, while the "wet" forces are accomplishing their work in secret. The latter have made no reply to any statement made by the "drys" in the local press.

All that can be determined about their position is that prominent whiskey men have been here from other cities for conference and to look the situation over. The local "wets" have been quietly organizing their forces and bringing in every voter who has been away from the city.

The temperance people, as a result of their canvass, are confident they will win, and place the probable majority at from 150 to 200.

When asked as to what he thought of this estimate, one prominent whiskey man said he was puzzled to understand upon what it was based.

The whiskey men are reticent as to their plans and will give out nothing. There are rumors to the effect that they have large money at their command, but there appears to be no way of confirming these rumors at present.

The impression has been current all along that many of the business men will vote "wet" upon the basis that Abingdon has a dispensary and that it counts for little to have prohibition here, with a whiskey supply only fifteen miles away, and with Abingdon getting all the revenue from the whiskey traffic and Bristol none.

This impression was strengthened when the city council, weeks before an election was petitioned for, voted to increase the saloon license to $500, when no saloon were in existence here.

The temperance people are working the city by words, with a complete poll list in their possession. They will hold their final rally Monday, when Seaborn Wright, of Georgia, will address a mass meeting in Fairmount tabernacle.

Were Secretly Married.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] RALEIGH, N. C., July 3.—The people of Raleigh experienced a decided sensation to-day when announcement was made by the family of the marriage of Miss Aline Young, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Young, the marriage having been secret for some time.

The ceremony was in the Baptist Church there by the pastor, Rev. Joel S. Snyder. The bride has now joined her husband, Charles Olcott Young, at Madison, Miss.

Held for Grand Jury.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] NORFOLK, Va., July 3.—Fred M. Foster, the man of many aliases, charged with uttering forged checks and forgeries, was taken to the Police Court to-day and bound over to the Corporation Court, being sent to jail in default of the necessary bail. Foster does not deny the accusations, but claims that at times he does not know what he is doing. He admits that he often loses his mind. His father claims he is demented. The police take little stock in this defense.

COURT UPHOLDS USE OF PASSES

City Officials Who Accepted Them Did So as Railway Employees.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] CLIFTON FORGE, Va., July 3.—In the City Circuit Court here to-day Judge George K. Anderson handed down a lengthy opinion in the case of the Commonwealth vs. J. A. Gleason and others, which is of interest to the entire State, and to railroad men in particular. A few weeks ago the attorney for the Commonwealth instituted proceedings to oust the members of the City Council who are employed by the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad because these members use passes. It was alleged that the accepting of these passes by the members of the Council, although in the employ of the railroad, was in violation of the Constitution.

Judge Anderson heard the evidence in the case, all of yesterday being taken up with witnesses and argument by the attorneys, and this morning a written opinion was rendered, the court holding that an employee of a railroad holding a public office has the right to accept and use passes issued to him as an employee. Judge Anderson stated in his opinion that a pass of this nature could not be regarded as a free pass.

This case has created a great deal of interest here, and it is understood that an appeal will be taken to the Supreme Court. The opinion by Judge Anderson will with general approval, had it been otherwise it would have deprived a number of good men of the right to hold office and work for the railroad company.

POLITICAL INTEREST IS BEGINNING TO LIVE UP

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] CHATHAM, Va., July 3.—The political campaign has begun to simmer since the meeting of the county executive committee of the Democratic party, fixed August 5 for nominating candidates for the Legislature. Major Geo. T. Rison is a candidate to succeed himself in the upper branch of the General Assembly with a wide general approval. He has been otherwise it would have deprived a number of good men of the right to hold office and work for the railroad company.

Indications are that there will be other candidates, as there has been some talk of the anti-liquor advocates having a full ticket in the field.

ALDERMEN SUED FOR MALICIOUS PROSECUTION

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] RALEIGH, N. C., July 3.—J. Sherwood Upchurch, member of the Raleigh Board of Aldermen, has instituted suit against two fellow-members—George L. Womble and R. D. Feebles—for malicious prosecution.
